PUBLIC FORUM ON NEW APARTMENTS AND PARKING

We've heard your concerns about new apartments in inner north and eastside neighborhoods with little or no parking.

Now it is time to share the research we've been doing and discuss next steps with the community.

Bureau of Planning and Sustainability staff will present the results of several studies to the Planning and Sustainability Commission at an open forum on November 13. After the presentation, there will be time for the public to comment.

To read the studies, please go to: www.portlandoregon.gov/bps/pdxcompplan

For more information or if you have questions, please contact:

Portland Planning and Sustainability Commission Public Forum on New Apartments and Parking

Tuesday, November 13, 2012 at 1:30 – 3:30 p.m.
1900 SW 4th Avenue, Room 2500A

Staff will share the results of the following studies:

1. Parking Behavior and Travel Study:
   - A survey of residents of infill apartments in inner Portland to learn about vehicle ownership and travel behavior
   - A survey of parking congestion around eight existing infill apartments
   - Interviews with community stakeholders and residents of eight existing infill apartments
2. Cost of development comparison (parking vs. no parking) and impacts on affordability
3. TriMet Service Review – A review of transit service frequency in 2007 (prior to service cuts) and current service levels

Comments, feedback and questions are welcome!
