EXECUTIVE ORDER

CORRECTED EFFECTIVE DATE

DATE: April 13, 2012

TO: All Bureau Members

RE: 830.00 Arrest Without Warrant

ACTION: This directive has been revised to include new probable cause arrests, changes to Z-cites, deletion of procedures for Attempted PCS I and PCS II. See below:

830.00 Arrest Without Warrant
Under Refer section; add ORS 137.545 Authority of Officer to Arrest for Violation of a Condition of Probation.

Under Procedure, sub-section Arrest and Citations-in-Lieu-of-Custody Stemming from Criminal Actions, add:

f. A violation of any order or agreement referenced in ORS 133.310.
g. Acts requiring arrest under ORS 133.055.
h. A violation of a condition of probation.

Under Z-Cites and C-Cites; sub-section (a) in the first sentence to read as follows:

Z-Cities should be issued for violations and any misdemeanor that is not accepted for booking at the Multnomah County Detention Center. Z-Cites may be issued for misdemeanors that are accepted for booking with prior supervisor approval.

Second sentence in this sub-section remains the same.

Added new section:

Arrests for Violating a Condition of Probation
Members may only make a probable cause arrest of a person for violating a condition of probation imposed by the county court in the State of Oregon. Members may not arrest for violating a condition of a person's parole, probation or post-prison supervision imposed by the State of Oregon, another state's agencies or courts, or federal agencies or courts, without a detainer or warrant first being issued by a court or parole or probation officer.

Under Procedures for Attempted PCS I and PCS II Charges, sub-sections b, c and d are deleted. Sub-section (a) now reads: All PCS I and PCS II charges that involve only residue quantities will be referred to the District Attorney's Office as misdemeanors.
