	Winter shelter and service providers will provide updates on capacity and services for adults, youth and families experiencing homelessness.
4.	Tell Us What's Important: Survey for the 10YP Reset	4:15-4:45
	Two months ago, the leadership of Home Forward, Multnomah County, and the Portland Housing Bureau updated us on their desire to work with CCEH and other community partners on a "reset" of our 10YP. This includes looking at successful practices, lessons learned, areas to improve, and opportunities to renew public engagement to end homelessness.
	As the reset process is being developed, and in the near future, the CCEH Steering Committee will be seeking CCEH participant input. We began some initial brainstorming in November and during this meeting want to hear from you about the questions and issues that should be tackled and prioritized as we look at the plan, including:
	 What are the most important topics the reset process should focus on? Which specific strategies, effective practices, and/or approaches should be continued or included in the 10YP in the next 3 to 5 years?
	 What are the biggest gaps you see in our current system? How should these gaps be filled?
5.	Community Announcements	4:45-5:00

Next CCEH Meeting: Wednesday, February 15, 2012 3:00-5:00pm, Room 202, First United Methodist Church
