3. Presentation of draft report: "A Home for Everyone: A United Community Plan to End Homelessness for Portland/Multnomah County" (Marc Jolin, Shannon Singleton, CCEH Co-Chairs) Join members of the Reset Committee in reviewing and commenting on this important document. Members of the Ten Year Plan Reset Committee will present "A Home for Everyone: A United Community Plan to End Homelessness for Portland/Multnomah County." The document is a culmination of the past year's efforts in convening a broadly representative community process to collect effective practices and prioritize needed changes for ending homelessness in our community. The document builds upon our existing Ten Year Plan and further focuses our efforts by providing priority populations and program areas to guide future investments over the next five years and beyond. Committee members will review the highlights of their report for discussion with CCEH participants.	3:15-4:15
4. Community Announcements	4:15-4:30
