Instructions

- Only complete this form if your household income is at or below the federal poverty level (see chart). You may include all adults in a family on one form. If your household income is above the federal poverty level, complete Form ARTS2012.
- Enter all members of the household (adults and children) on lines 1 through 4 above. Attach an additional page if there are more than four members of the household.
- Enter the total 2012 income for each household member. Income includes all income earned or received from any source, regardless of whether it is taxable under state or federal law. Examples of income include interest from individual or joint savings accounts or other interest bearing accounts, child support payments, alimony, disability income, unemployment assistance, sales of stocks and other property (even if sold at a loss), dividends, social security income (taxable or non-taxable), gross receipts from a business and wages as an employee.
- You must provide verification documents in order for your exemption to be approved. Please provide a signed copy of your 2012 federal Form 1040 (page 1 and 2). If you are unable to provide this return (for example, you are not subject to the Form 1040 filing requirements), you can provide a copy of a public assistance award letter for SNAP (Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program) or TANF (Temporary Assistance for Needy Families) benefits. If you cannot provide any of these you must provide a completed federal Form 4506-T (Request for Transcript of Tax Return). You can print this form from our website www.portlandoregon.gov/artstax (or www.artstax.net).
