

Heritage Trees of Portland

YELLOW BUCKEYE (Aesculus flava) SAPINDACEAE

- Native to eastern U.S.
- Height can exceed 100' but is usually less.
- Leaflets are 5 to make a palmate leaf.
- Flowers pale yellow, 7"-long erect clusters in May. Nut husks have no prickles and are pear-shaped.
- Bark is varied-colored plates and scales.
- Fall color is orange.
- Uncommon in Portland.

41 Yellow buckeye (Aesculus flava)

3387 SE Tibbets

H 55, S 38, C 9.25

180 Yellow buckeye (Aesculus flava)

5511 SE 44th*

H 55, S 48, C 9.9

LEGEND

* X cr. nr.	privately owned across from corner near	H S C	height canopy spread circumference of trunk
		(all measurements in feet)	