

Heritage Trees of Portland

WYCH ELM (Ulmus glabra) ULMACEAE

- Native from Europe to north and west Asia.
- Height can reach 150'.
- Leaves 3-7" long, dark green & rough above, lighter and hairy beneath, coarsely toothed, roundish, unequal at base.
- Tree has a broad crown and has no suckers around the base of the trunk.
- Uncommon in Portland.

210 Wych elm (Ulmus glabra)

216 SE 17th

H 80, S 58, C 14.1

LEGEND
* X cr. nr.	privately owned across from corner near	H	height
		S	canopy spread
		C	circumference of trunk
(all measurements in feet)			