Portland Seeking New Members for the City's Bicycle Advisory Committee

Interested in playing a role in building the City of Portland's bicycle infrastructure?
Want to bring your experience and knowledge to bicycle projects as they are being planned?
Want to be in a position to officially advise City Council and City staff on matters relating to bicycling?

If yes, then please consider applying to be a member of the Portland Bicycle Advisory Committee.

The Portland Bicycle Advisory Committee has been a standing city committee since the early 1970s. Its purpose is to advise the Mayor, City Council, and all City departments on all matters relating to bicycling for transportation and recreation.

Committee members meet monthly to review and make recommendations on:

- Planning documents affecting bicycling
- Funding priorities for bicycle-related projects
- Activities of other jurisdictions that affect bicycling in Portland

This volunteer committee is made of up 13 members with full standing, and up to seven alternate members. To qualify, applicants must:

- Be an adult resident of the Portland Metropolitan area
- Have an interest in promoting the use of the bicycle for transportation and recreation
- Make a commitment to attend monthly meetings and participate in the work of the committee.

Members are appointed to a 3-year term.

If you are interested, you will find more information about the Bicycle Advisory Committee as well as an application form on-line at: <https://www.portlandoregon.gov/transportation/37435>
You can also request an application and supporting materials from Roger Geller at the below address, or call him at (503) 823-7671.

Applications must be received no later than Friday, October 24, 2014.

Applications should be mailed, faxed or emailed to:
