

The City African American Network (CAAN)
invites you to attend a Black History Month 2018

Black Professionals Panel

Wednesday, February 21, 2018

12:00 - 1:00 PM

CH2M, 2020 SW 4th Ave.

Join the City of Portland's African American Network (CAAN) for an intimate discussion with Black leaders in the City of Portland. Speakers include:

Maurice Henderson, Mayor Ted Wheeler's Office

Chief Danielle Outlaw, Portland Police Bureau

Koffi "Jean-Pierre" Dessou, Office of Equity and Human Rights

Serilda Summers-McGee, Bureau of Human Resources

The discussion will be moderated by Antoinette Edwards, Office of Youth Violence Prevention. Lunch will be provided provided.

RSVP and sign up for future communications HERE.

For more information, contact: Kim McCarty at Kim.McCarty@portlandoregon.gov

City African American Network (CAAN)

Connecting + Empowering Black Employees Across the City of Portland

Like our Facebook page! www.facebook.com/pdxcaan

CAAN is an approved affiliation of the Diverse and Empowered Employees of Portland (DEEP).