

Office of the City Auditor

CLASS SPECIFICATION

COORDINATOR III

Salary Grade 57

Established: December 13, 2018

CLASSIFICATION SUMMARY

Under minimal supervision, performs a variety of professional duties, including planning, organizing, evaluating programs and functions, and collaborating with internal and external stakeholders.

Responsibilities include: serving as a liaison to the public, other organizational units, City Bureaus/Offices, and/or other governmental agencies; developing relationships with internal and external stakeholders to advance the goals of the unit; implementing and coordinating participation with vendors, agencies, and organizations; leading staff and collaborative groups within the assigned program, project, or function; working with stakeholders to develop strategies and approaches for complex programs and projects; developing and disseminating information; implementing elements of a specialized Auditor's Office program.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS

Coordinator III is the third of four classifications within the Coordinator series. This classification is specific to the City Auditor's Office and may not be used by other City Bureaus/Offices.

Coordinator III is distinguished from Coordinator II in that the former has more discretion for ensuring program or project implementation, may lead the work of staff, volunteers or contractors, may supervise a limited number of employees, and performs complex work with more authority for independent decisions and recommendations.

Coordinator III is distinguished from Coordinator IV in that the latter supervises a small staff and has considerable discretion in program oversight and development.

Coordinator III is distinguished from the Analyst series in that the latter exercises critical investigative ability, judgment, and discretion in making recommendations or decisions with an organizational impact and the former evaluates data and other information and collaborates with stakeholders to meet the goals of unit programs and functions.
