

City of Portland Campaign Finance Complaint Form

This document serves as the complaint form for reporting alleged violations of the City of Portland's campaign finance regulations (City Code Chapter 2.10 and City Charter Chapter 3, Article 3). Before completing this form, please review the information provided below.

Note: This form pertains to complaints regarding alleged violations of the City's campaign finance regulations, including contribution limits and funding disclosures. To issue complaints alleging violations of the City's public campaign financing program, Open and Accountable Elections, please email openelections@portlandoregon.gov.

Who may file a complaint alleging violations of Portland's campaign finance regulations?

Any person may file a written complaint with the City Auditor's Office using this form.

What information is required to submit a complaint about Portland's campaign finance regulations?

For the Auditor's Office to investigate complaints, the following information is needed:

- The names of the individual, candidate, political committees, or other entity alleged to have violated the City's campaign finance regulations;
- A description of the alleged violation (for example, the contribution alleged to have been made or received, a voter communication that lacked a required disclosure);
- The dates of the alleged violations; and
- If known, any applicable dollar amount associated with the complaint.

What type of complaints will be investigated?

The Auditor's Office will investigate violations of the following sections of campaign finance regulations that occurred after September 1, 2019:

- Communication disclosure requirements in City Code Section 2.10.030.
- Payroll deduction requirements, described in City Code Section 2.10.010 C.
- ORESTAR registration requirements described in City Code Section 2.10.020 B.

The Auditor's Office will investigate violations of the following sections of campaign finance regulations that occurred after May 4, 2020:

- Campaign contribution limits in City Code Section 2.10.010, except for B. 3. (self-funding limitation).
