Proposed renovation and conversion of the vacant Mt. Hood Masonic Lodge. The conversion will include a hotel on three floors, and a 974 square foot "venue space" (for meeting space, entertainment, or a bar/pub). The basement will be converted to mechanical space, as well as showers and restrooms for use by an outdoor spa pool. The existing paved parking area directly north of the building will be converted to an outdoor seating area and garden, and include a spa pool, garden bar and restrooms. Exterior alterations to the building are also proposed, including new window and door openings, a new entry canopy, and new skylights. Establishment of a Retail Sales and Service use in a historic landmark located in a residential zone requires a Type III Historic Preservation Incentive Review. The proposed exterior alterations to the building and site require either a Type II or Type III Historic Design Review (depending on the valuation of the alterations).
