Proposal:

The applicant proposes to replace one non-historic wood divided-light bay window, installed in 2001, on the front façade with a new wood divided-light bay window to match the existing.

Historic resource review is required because the proposal is for a non-exempt exterior alteration on a resource in the Irvington Historic District.

Relevant Approval Criteria:

In order to be approved, this proposal must comply with the approval criteria specified in the Portland Zoning Code. The relevant approval criteria are:

- 33.846.060.G Other approval criteria

ANALYSIS

Site and Vicinity: The subject property is oriented east on NE 26th Avenue. It was constructed in 1940 in the Minimal Traditional style with Tudor Revival characteristics. The house has received minor alterations since its original construction including the replacement of the front bay windows in 2001. The house is located on a block with many other contributing resources, primarily single dwellings.

The Irvington Historic District was platted in 1887 and was one of the first subdivisions in Portland to employ restrictive covenants, including uniform setbacks, minimum construction expenditures, the exclusion of minorities and the exclusion of non-residential uses. The few non-residential uses allowed at the interior of the district were required to be designed to resemble residential buildings. Development of the neighborhood spread slowly from the south east corner toward the northeast, following the patterns of streetcar development, first along NE Broadway, followed by extensions north into the neighborhood. As the restrictive covenants expired, more commercial development occurred at the edge of the subdivision along NE Broadway through conversion of residential properties and new development. The district comprises an eclectic assortment of late 19th and early 20th century architectural styles, including Queen Anne, Craftsman, and Period Revival styles. Garages built during the period of significance were either built at the same time as the associated residences for the later developments, or were later additions to the earlier residences, and were most commonly located at the rear or front of the property.

Zoning: The Residential 5,000 (R5) single-dwelling zone is intended to preserve land for housing and to provide housing opportunities for individual households. The zone implements the comprehensive plan policies and designations for single-dwelling housing. Minimum lot size is 3,000 square feet, with minimum width and depth dimensions of 36 and 50 feet, respectively. Minimum densities are based on lot size and street configuration. Maximum densities are 1 lot per 5,000 square feet of site area.

The Historic Resource Protection overlay is comprised of Historic and Conservation Districts, as well as Historic and Conservation Landmarks and protects certain historic resources in the region and preserves significant parts of the region's heritage. The regulations implement Portland's Comprehensive Plan policies that address historic preservation. These policies recognize the role historic resources have in promoting the education and enjoyment of those living in and visiting the region. The regulations foster pride among the region's citizens in their city and its heritage. Historic preservation beautifies the city, promotes the city's economic health, and helps to preserve and enhance the value of historic properties.

Land Use History: City records indicate there are no prior land use reviews for this site.

ZONING CODE APPROVAL CRITERIA

Chapter 33.846.060 - Historic Resource Review

Purpose of Historic Resource Review

Historic Resource Review ensures the conservation and enhancement of the special characteristics of historic resources.

Historic Resource Review Approval Criteria

Requests for Historic Resource Review will be approved if the review body finds the applicant has shown that all of the approval criteria have been met.

Findings: The site is within the Irvington Historic District and the proposal is for non-exempt treatment. Therefore Historic Resource Review approval is required. The approval criteria are those listed in 33.846.060 G – Other Approval Criteria.

Staff has considered all guidelines and addressed only those applicable to this proposal.

33.846.060 G - Other Approval Criteria

- 1. Historic character. The historic character of the property will be retained and preserved. Removal of historic materials or alteration of features and spaces that contribute to the property's historic significance will be avoided.
- 2. Record of its time. The historic resource will remain a physical record of its time, place, and use. Changes that create a false sense of historic development, such as adding conjectural features or architectural elements from other buildings will be avoided.
- 3. Historic changes. Most properties change over time. Those changes that have acquired historic significance will be preserved.
- 4. Historic features. Generally, deteriorated historic features will be repaired rather than replaced. Where the severity of deterioration requires replacement, the new feature will match the old in design, color, texture, and other visual qualities and, where practical, in materials. Replacement of missing features must be substantiated by documentary, physical, or pictorial evidence.
- 7. Differentiate new from old. New additions, exterior alterations, or related new construction will not destroy historic materials that characterize a property. New work will be differentiated from the old.
- 9. Preserve the form and integrity of historic resources. New additions and adjacent or related new construction will be undertaken in such a manner that if removed in the future, the essential form and integrity of the historic resource and its environment would be unimpaired.

Findings for 1, 2, 3, 4, 7, and 9: As noted above, the window to be replaced was installed in 2001, therefore it is not considered historic. Replacement of this non-historic window is the only change proposed; therefore, the essential form and integrity of the resource will remain intact. The replacement window is proposed to be constructed of wood, will feature divided lights, and will be recessed to match the other windows in the house to retain the historic character of the resource and ensure that it remains a record of its time. The new window is intended to halt water intrusion currently occurring with the existing window which will ensure the continued preservation of the resource. It will be differentiated primarily by this record. These criteria are met.

- 5. Historic materials. Historic materials will be protected. Chemical or physical treatments, such as sandblasting, that cause damage to historic materials will not be used.

Findings: No chemical treatments are proposed. This criterion is not applicable.

6. Archaeological resources. Significant archaeological resources affected by a proposal will be protected and preserved to the extent practical. When such resources are disturbed, mitigation measures will be undertaken.

Findings: No ground surfaces will be disturbed. This criterion is not applicable.

8. Architectural compatibility. New additions, exterior alterations, or related new construction will be compatible with the resource's massing, size, scale, and architectural features. When retrofitting buildings or sites to improve accessibility for persons with disabilities, design solutions will not compromise the architectural integrity of the historic resource.

10. Hierarchy of compatibility. Exterior alterations and additions will be designed to be compatible primarily with the original resource, secondarily with adjacent properties, and finally, if located within a Historic or Conservation District, with the rest of the district. Where practical, compatibility will be pursued on all three levels.

Findings for 8 and 10: The replacement window is designed to match the existing window. The new window will be wood, will be recessed to match other windows on the house, and will feature divided lights making it compatible with the historic resource, adjacent properties, and the district as a whole, as this is a common window style on nearby properties and within the district. These criteria are met.

DEVELOPMENT STANDARDS

Unless specifically required in the approval criteria listed above, this proposal does not have to meet the development standards in order to be approved during this review process. The plans submitted for a building or zoning permit must demonstrate that all development standards of Title 33 can be met, or have received an Adjustment or Modification via a land use review prior to the approval of a building or zoning permit.

CONCLUSIONS

Replacement of the existing non-historic window is intended to correct water intrusion problems and will ensure continued preservation of the historic resource. The new window is designed to match the existing window in material, style, and character. It is compatible with the resource, adjacent properties, and the district as a whole. The purpose of the Historic Resource Review process is to ensure that additions, new construction, and exterior alterations to historic resources do not compromise their ability to convey historic significance. This proposal meets the applicable Historic Resource Review criteria and therefore warrants approval.
