

DEFINITION OF RESIDENTIAL DEMOLITION: A residential demolition includes the removal of the entire superstructure down to the subflooring, such that none of the existing superstructure is maintained.

Superstructure is the part of a building or construction entirely above its foundation or basement.