Subject Executive Session: Class Comp

Location City Hall: Rose Room

Show Time As Busy

The Executive session will be an opportunity to share with council the challenges with the current class comp structure, and the opportunities the new structure will provide.

Note: council approves the new structure, which include the new classification structure and the compensation structure. They do not approve specific allocations.

BHR will explore all allocation concerns during the reconsideration period and we are currently meeting with Directors who have FLSA concerns. Also, the new class comp structure will not be implemented for up to 13 weeks after it is approved by council, as it must be built in SAP.

	Thank you for your participation in the Non Rep Class Comp Study. Through the allocation process, some positions in your group that are currently FLSA (Fair Labor Standards Act) Exempt will become FLSA Non-Exempt in the new system being implemented later this year. I would like to meet with you to discuss the practical implications of this change, what is required to confirm a position remain exempt, and ways Class Comp can help through the process.
