The City's Bureau of Development Services (BDS) promotes community safety, livability, and economic vitality through the implementation of the zoning code and regulation of the built environment. We are currently seeking a Public Information Officer (PIO) to communicate this critically important work. The PIO is a key member of our collaborative communications team who supports communications strategy, content development and editing, media relations, social media, and creative story-telling. This position will join the Communications Manager as the bureau's primary spokespersons and will develop and implement a variety of communications programs and initiatives that support and promote BDS programs, policies, and projects.
