

City of PortlandCLASS SPECIFICATION
DEPUTY CHIEF OF POLICE*[CLASS CODE]*[ESTABLISHED DATE]*CLASSIFICATION SUMMARY

Reports to the Police Chief. Under general policy direction, responsible for assisting the Police Chief with planning, directing, managing, and overseeing the activities and operations of the Portland Police Bureau (PPB) and all of its branches. Acts as the Police Chief in their absence. Classification is exempt from Civil Service.

Responsibilities include: assisting Police Chief with oversight of the day-to-day operations of the Police Bureau (PPB); coordinating assigned activities with other City bureaus and outside agencies; providing highly responsible and complex administrative support to the Police Chief; overseeing all programs, policies, and services at the Police Bureau while focusing on crime reduction and prevention; providing direction to sworn and non-sworn management, supervisory, professional, technical, and other support staff. Responsibilities are broad in scope and require the exercise of considerable discretion and latitude of judgment in the formulation and development of policies and procedures.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS

Deputy Chief of Police is a single-incumbent classification and the highest executive-level management classification reporting to the Police Chief.

Deputy Chief of Police is distinguished from Police Chief in that the latter is responsible for leading the Portland Police Bureau and the former is responsible for overseeing assigned programs, policies, and services, and reports to the Police Chief.

Deputy Chief of Police is distinguished from Assistant Police Chief by the former's role in day-to-day oversight of the operations of the Police Bureau.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS

The incumbent may perform a combination of some or all of the following duties, and performs related duties as assigned.

General Duties:

1. Work closely with the Police Chief in setting and carrying out the vision, mission, and objectives for the PPB; develop strategies, policies, and initiatives to implement the strategic plan; provide financial management; administer policies, procedures, programs, goals, and objectives.
2. Manage assigned programs, services, and activities of the PPB.
3. Assist with managing the development and implementation of the Police Bureau's goals, objectives, policies, and priorities for each assigned service area; establish appropriate service and staffing levels and allocate resources in accordance with City policy.
4. Monitor and evaluate the efficiency and effectiveness of service delivery methods and procedures on a continual basis; assess and monitor workload, administrative and support systems, and internal reporting relationships; identify opportunities for improvement; direct the implementation of changes.

5. Represent the Police Bureau to other City bureaus, elected officials, and outside agencies; explain and interpret programs, policies, and activities; negotiate and resolve sensitive, significant, and controversial issues.
6. Plan, direct, and coordinate, through subordinate managers, the Police Bureau's work plan; meet with staff to identify and resolve problems; assign projects and programmatic areas of responsibility; review and evaluate work methods and procedures.
7. Assist with managing, developing, and monitoring the Police Bureau budget; direct the forecasting of additional funds required for staffing, equipment, materials, and supplies; monitor and approve expenditures; direct the preparation of and implement budgetary adjustments as necessary.
8. Coordinate Bureau activities with those of other Bureaus/Offices, outside agencies, and organizations; maintain and facilitate public relations and collaborative, cooperative working relationships with news media, schools, local organizations, and the general public; attend and speak at various community functions and meetings; prepare press releases and confer with the media in matters related to assigned activities.
9. Review and analyze reports, legislation, court cases, and related matters; prepare initial responses for legal actions; prepare ordinances for consideration by the City Council.
10. Provide staff assistance to the Police Chief, Mayor, and City Council; prepare and present staff reports and other necessary correspondence and documentation.
11. Conduct a variety of organizational studies, investigations, and operational studies; recommend modifications to Bureau programs, policies, and procedures as appropriate.
12. Participate on a variety of boards and commissions; attend and participate in professional group meetings; remain current regarding new trends and innovations in the field of law enforcement.
13. Respond to and resolve difficult and sensitive inquiries and complaints.
14. Act for the Police Chief in the Chief's absence; approve or disapprove staff work and other relevant documents.
15. Provide leadership to attract, develop, and retain diverse, highly competent, service-oriented staff that support the City's and Police Bureau's mission, objectives, and service expectations; create and promote an equitable workplace that demonstrates an environment respectful of living and working in a multicultural society; ensure that employees are provided with guidance and opportunity to correct deficiencies, and appropriate discipline procedures are implemented.
