[CLASS CODE]

EFFECTIVE: December 13, 2018

CLASSIFICATION SUMMARY

Reports to a Police Commander, Assistant Police Chief, or the Police Chief. Under minimal direction, plans, organizes, leads, and evaluates the activities and personnel of a police precinct or division in the Portland Police Bureau (PPB).

Responsibilities include: acting as commanding officer of assigned precinct or division; leading the planning, organizing, directing, and evaluating the precinct or division and its specific programs, functions, and activities; ensuring implementation of the goals and mission of the precinct or division; providing staff with leadership, direction, and support; managing, reviewing, and approving vendor and professional contracts; managing subordinate supervisors. Responsibilities are broad in scope, allow for a moderate degree of program and administrative discretion, and are evaluated in terms of overall program and cost effectiveness.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS

Police Captain is the highest classification below the executive-level management in the PPB's structure.

Police Captain is distinguished from Police Lieutenant in that the former is responsible for determining division objectives within the scope of the Bureau's mission and directing Police Lieutenants.

Police Captain is distinguished from Police Commander in that the latter is responsible for overseeing the core operational responsibilities within a division or precinct, supervising Police Captains, and directing, implementing, and developing programs and policies throughout the organizational unit.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS

Depending on the assignment, the incumbent may perform a combination of some or all of the following duties, and perform related duties, as assigned.
