CLASSIFICATION SUMMARY

Reports to the Deputy Chief of Police. Under general policy direction, plans, organizes, directs and evaluates the activities and personnel of a branch in the Portland Police Bureau (PPB). Classification is exempt from Civil Service.

Responsibilities include: assisting the Deputy Chief of Police with establishing the strategic direction, mission, and operations of the Bureau; planning, directing, revising, and coordinating organizational structure and programs; deciding and communicating goals and standards; budgeting and exercising fiscal control; directing personnel and operations; acting as the Deputy Chief of Police in their absence. Responsibilities are broad in scope, allow for a high degree of program and administrative discretion, and are evaluated in terms of overall program and cost effectiveness.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS

Assistant Police Chief is an executive-level management classification reporting to the Deputy Chief of Police.

Assistant Police Chief is distinguished from Deputy Chief of Police in that the latter is responsible for supporting the Police Chief in leading the Portland Police Bureau and the former is responsible for a branch within the PPB.

Assistant Police Chief is distinguished from Police Commander by the former's role in policy development and implementation, responsibility for the overall management and operations of assigned branch, and the latter's strategic and operational support provided to the Assistant Police Chief.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS

Depending on the assignment, the incumbent may perform a combination of some or all of the following duties, and perform related duties as assigned.

General Duties:

1. Work closely with the Deputy Chief of Police to support setting and carrying out the vision, mission, and objectives for the PPB; assist in developing strategies, policies, and initiatives to implement the strategic plan; provide financial management; administer policies, procedures, programs, goals, and objectives.
2. Represent the City and the PPB to other Bureaus/Offices, the public, elected officials, other agencies, other jurisdictions, committees, community groups, and organizations; make presentations; chair and participate in law enforcement meetings, committees, and boards; conduct community outreach; provide staff assistance to City Council; maintain constructive media relations; develop and maintain external relationships; respond to sensitive citizen and media questions, feedback, and requests for information.

3. Prepare strategic and tactical work plans; develop and execute special projects impacting PPB operations and activities; develop, implement, improve, monitor, and evaluate programs, projects, workflow, methods, and work products in accordance with City and PPB plans, budgets, and policies; perform complex, specialized financial, revenue, budgetary, and management studies and analyses.
4. Plan, organize, manage, direct, and evaluate the assigned branch and work of staff; complete annual performance reviews.
5. Coordinate with internal and external organizations to promote crime prevention strategies, strengthen community partnerships, public awareness, and support of PPB activities.
6. Enforce federal, state, and local laws within the jurisdiction of the City, and in coordination with other law enforcement agencies.
7. Supervise, participate in, and approve the development and administration of the PPB budget; forecast resources needed for staffing, equipment, materials, and supplies; authorize expenditures; monitor budget-to-actual revenues and expenditures; implement mid-year or other adjustments.
8. Provide leadership to attract, develop, and retain diverse, highly competent, service-oriented staff that support the City's and PPB's mission, objectives, and service expectations; create and promote an equitable workplace that demonstrates an environment respectful of living and working in a multicultural society; ensure that employees are provided with guidance and opportunity to correct deficiencies, and appropriate discipline procedures are implemented.
9. Review and analyze pertinent statutes, regulations, ordinances, and policies in terms of impact on PPB programs within assigned branch; ensure PPB compliance with policies, procedures and regulations.
10. Work closely with Bureau of Emergency Communications to ensure adequate police communications, including police dispatching.
