CLASSIFICATION SUMMARY

Reports to a Coordinator IV, Supervisor, Manager, or other supervisory- or management-level position. Under general supervision, performs a variety of professional duties, including planning, organizing, evaluating programs and functions and collaborating with internal and external stakeholders.

Responsibilities include: serving as a liaison to the public and/or other organizational units; developing partnerships with internal and external stakeholders to advance the goals of the unit; implementing and coordinating participation with vendors, agencies, and organizations; working with stakeholders and other Bureaus/Offices to develop strategies and approaches for moderate to complex programs and projects; collecting and disseminating information; implementing elements of a specialized Bureau/Office program.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS

Coordinator II is the second of four classifications in the Coordinator series.

Coordinator II is distinguished from Coordinator I in that the former is responsible for larger or multiple smaller projects, programs, or events, may lead the work of a small to moderate size team, and requires less oversight and direction from supervisory or management staff.

Coordinator II is distinguished from Coordinator III in that the latter has more responsibility for ensuring program or project implementation, may supervise the work of contractors, Coordinator positions and other staff, and performs complex or technical work with more authority for independent decisions and recommendations.

Coordinator II is distinguished from the Analyst series in that the latter exercises critical investigative ability, judgment, and discretion in making recommendations or decisions with an organizational impact and the former evaluates data and other information and collaborates with stakeholders to meet the goals of unit programs and functions.
