CLASS SPECIFICATION

PUBLIC SAFETY SUPPORT SPECIALIST

CLASS CODE: 30002611

ESTABLISHED DATE: June 4, 2018

CLASSIFICATION SUMMARY

Reports to a Police Sergeant or a sworn, management-level position. Under direct supervision, provides support to sworn police officers in non-emergency, non-priority situations; assists sworn personnel in community outreach with the public; provides a visible, community-based police support function to enhance the Portland Police Bureau's (PPB) service to the public.

Responsibilities include: responding to non-emergency calls for service that do not require police authority; assisting sworn officers with community engagement; providing referral services to the public.

During their 12-month probationary period, new Public Safety Support Specialists receive extensive classroom and on-the-job training related to non-emergency community police support services. Each phase of training must be successfully completed for continued employment in this classification.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS

Public Safety Support Specialists represent the Portland Police Bureau and are deployed in the field to assist police officers in responding to non-emergency calls for service that do not require police authority.

Public Safety Support Specialist is distinguished from Police Officer in that the latter is a sworn classification performing full-scope law enforcement and crime prevention work. The Public Safety Support Specialist is a non-sworn and non-certified police support function.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS

Depending on the assignment, under the supervision of a sworn police supervisor, the incumbent may perform a combination of some or all of the following duties, and perform related duties as assigned.

General Duties:

1. Write police reports for non-emergency situations that do not require police officer authority, and do not involve potential evidence, suspects, or a crime scene.
2. Respond to non-injury traffic collisions to facilitate information exchange between involved parties; coordinate tow services for disabled vehicles.
3. Conduct follow-up on property crimes where there is no suspect information, either by phone or in person, with an emphasis on crime victims' rights and referrals to other City Bureaus.

4. Process evidence or property, including writing reports and properly securing property.
5. Attend neighborhood meetings, community and/or public events. (This does not replace attendance at such events by sworn officers.)
6. Assist police officers in searching for missing persons such as elderly adults, medically fragile adults, or children when there is no reason to believe they are a threat to themselves or the community.
7. Assist with inventory and maintenance of PPB-issued equipment, excluding weapons and ammunition.
8. Assist drivers in stalled vehicles and summon other necessary assistance; respond to pedestrians, bicyclists, and other community members in need of assistance.
9. Broadcast and receive messages via police radio and Mobile Data Terminal (MDT); maintain contact with field units; ask for assistance when appropriate due to incident type and scope.
10. Assist with temporary street closures, detours and other public service duties identified by police supervisors.
11. Summon a police officer for situations they encounter in which enforcement action is necessary.
