

Central City 2035

Housing and Community Development Symposium 2 - Summary

November 12, 2010

The second event of the CC2035 Symposium Series was held on Friday, November 12, 2010. Each symposium in the series is an intense and focused work session organized around one of six topics. There were thirteen panelists representing a broad range of groups who discussed key topics related to Housing and Community Development. Project staff and around fifteen members of the public were also in attendance.

The panelists included:

Kate Allen – Portland Housing Bureau

Karen Beninate – We Village

Phil Beyl – GBD Architects

Ed Blackburn – CC2035 Advisory Group and Central City Concern

Paul Cathcart – Portland Public Schools

Nancy Davis – CC2035 Advisory Group and Zimmerman Community Center

Peter Englander – Portland Development Commission

Amy Lewin – CC2035 Advisory Group and Hosford-Abernethy Neighborhood Development

Kim McCarty – Portland Housing Bureau

Ed McNamara – Turtle Island Development

Carl Talton – CC2035 Advisory Group and Portland Family of Funds

Dee Walsh - REACH

Gary Warren – Calaroga Terrace

Participants discussed some tough issues, identified challenges and opportunities and brainstormed solutions. The meeting was organized as follows:

1. Welcome and Participant Introductions
2. Agenda Review
3. Overview of Prior Symposium
4. Discussion – Homelessness
5. Discussion – Housing Affordability
6. Discussion – Housing Equity
7. Public Comment
8. Break
9. Discussion – Housing Districts (Review of Maps)
10. Public Comment
11. Next Steps
12. Adjourn

For a more detailed list of comments and topics, please review the Symposium Minutes. The next Symposium in the Series will focus on Economic Vitality. Please see the Symposium Series flyer for more detailed information on the entire series.