This is a clean-up edit; contributing structures in Conservation Districts are not subject to demolition review unless they have a preservation agreement.

33.846.080 Demolition Review

A. Purpose. Demolition review protects resources that have been individually listed in the National Register of Historic Places or are identified as contributing to the historic significance of a Historic District ~~or a Conservation District~~. It also protects Historic Landmarks and Conservation Landmarks that have taken advantage of an incentive for historic preservation and historic resources that have a preservation agreement. Demolition review recognizes that historic resources are irreplaceable assets that preserve our heritage, beautify the city, enhance civic identity, and promote economic vitality.
