

Bureau of Development Services

The following question was asked during the bureau's budget work session. The response is presented below:

1. Council needs to have legal opinion on the use of Land Use Services (LUS) revenues and the requirement for maintaining General Fund resources in the program.

Answer:

CBO is leading the effort to consult with the City Attorney's Office regarding the above issues and will report to Council when legal opinion is available.