delivered via email and US mail. Civic Life shall issue the MRL after the following has been received:

- a. Documented proof that a state license or registration has been issued; and
 - b. The specified licensing fee.
5. If there is cause for denial, Civic Life shall notify the Primary Contact or Legal Representative that MRL application has been denied. The notice shall be delivered via email and US mail. If the Primary Contact or Legal Representative believe the determination was made in error, they may request a review by Civic Life. The request must be submitted in writing within 10 business days of the determination and must include all evidence that supports the request and the associated administrative review fee.

J. Deadline Extension Requests for MRL Applications

1. Upon application review, if Civic Life finds a MRL application is missing information or documentation the applicant shall be notified via email and US mail to inform them the application is incomplete. The notice shall inform the Primary Contact or Legal Representative they have the right to request a deadline extension to postpone the due date to submit the missing items. The request must be received prior to the due date for missing documents. If the Deadline Extension Request is denied, the missing items must be submitted to Civic Life by the due date stated on the notice.
2. The Primary Contact or Legal Representative may submit a Deadline Extension Request to submit missing information or documentation required under Subsections C.4, or C.5., so long as the due date to submit missing information or documentation has not passed.
 - a. Applications for Retailers who have not submitted documented proof of access such as a lease or title to the real property, must provide a letter of intent from the landlord of the location in order to hold the pending buffer upon the original 60 day deadline as outlined in Subsection C.4 in order to request additional extensions.
3. If a request is received outside of the allowed timeframes, the request may be denied. Request must be delivered to Civic Life via email, mail or in person. Missing three or more deadlines results in automatic denial of the application.
4. Requests must include:
 - a. A Deadline Extension Request form; and
 - b. Any and all documentation to support the reason for the request.
5. Extension requests will be reviewed on a case by case basis.
6. Applicants shall be notified of the determination of the request via email or mail.

K. Abandonment or Termination of a Marijuana Regulatory License Application

1. This section outlines guidelines and procedures for abandonment and termination of Marijuana Regulatory License applications.
 - a. Civic Life may treat a Marijuana Regulatory License application as abandoned, and terminate the application, if:
 - (1) An incomplete Marijuana Regulatory License application is past its deadline; and
 - (2) The applicant does not have a pending Deadline Extension Request, and;
 - (3) The Cannabis Program notifies the Primary Contact or legal representative by an Application Abandonment Warning, by email and US mail, that the following action is needed to keep the application active:
 - (a) Submittal of the missing information or documentation, submitted in accordance with Section F.1.a of these Administrative Guidelines; OR
 - (b) A Deadline Extension Request for the missing information or documentation, in accordance with Section J of these Administrative Guidelines.
 - (4) If Civic Life does not receive the above information within 10 business days, the application may be considered abandoned, and the application may be terminated.
 - (5) Civic Life may terminate an application if:
 - (1) Two (2) years since initial application submittal has passed and the application is not deemed complete for licensure.
 - (a) Applicants may be allowed to reapply at any time.
 - (b) If a retail application is resubmitted, applicant has sixty (60) days to show progress. If no progress is shown, application may be denied without allowance for request of a deadline extension.
 - (6) Missing three or more deadlines results in an automatic denial of the application.

L. Grounds for Denial of Initial or Renewal Application

1. Inability to meet licensure requirements under PCC 14B.130.040 D.2.
 - a. Pursuant to PCC 14B.130 Civic Life shall deny an application submitted under the Distance Requirement Exception Sections 14B.130.040 D.2.a.(1) or 14B.130.040 D.2.a.(2), if the application does not meet the requirements for licensure under the Distance Requirement Exception provisions.

2. Crime or Livability Incidents

- a. Pursuant to PCC 14B.130.070, Civic Life shall investigate crime and livability complaints in the immediate vicinity of the location proposed to be licensed.
- b. Following the investigation, if Civic Life determines that there are substantiated complaints related to illegal activity, livability, and crime incidents associated with the business, Civic Life may deny the MRL application or suspend or revoke the MRL.

(1) In evaluating and substantiating complaints and incidents, the following shall be considered:

- (a) The proximity or relevance of the incidents to the location to be licensed or renewed
- (b) The number and/or types of complaints received and documentation available
- (c) Any mitigating or aggravating circumstances associated with the incidents

3. Misrepresentation of material facts on application: if the applicant is found to have misrepresented material facts on the application, the application shall be denied.
4. Withholding information required for application review or inspections. The application may be denied for any of the following:
 - a. The application is missing information;
 - b. Information in the application cannot be verified;
 - c. There exists document proof that the applicant is non-cooperative with Cannabis Program staff, or;
 - d. The application is illegible.
5. Failure to operate in compliance with 14B.130 or any other City or State law, subsequent to PCC 14B.130.070. C. 5.
6. If a location has received three or more violations for operating out of compliance with PCC 14B.130, future applications may be denied subsequent to PCC 14B.130.070. C. 5.

M. Conditional Approval

1. Conditional Approval of an application for Marijuana Regulatory License.
 - a. Civic Life may conditionally approve an application for a Marijuana Regulatory License for Marijuana Business or Medical Dispensary under the following conditions:

- (1) The application demonstrates compliance with Portland City Code 14B.130.040; minimum standards;
 - (2) The premises to be licensed has successfully passed the final inspection.
 - (3) The MRL application has successfully passed the final review.
- b. The conditional approval shall expire and the licensee shall be denied after six months unless:
- (1) The applicant shows good cause for an extension and requests an extension prior to the expiration of the conditional approval; or
 - (2) The Primary Contact or Legal Representative provides documented proof of the following prior to the expiration of the Conditional Approval:
 - (a) Oregon Medical Marijuana Dispensary Registration issued by the Oregon Health Authority; or
 - (b) State Marijuana License issued by the Oregon Liquor Control Commission License for Marijuana Retailers, Producers, Processors and Wholesalers.

N. License Issuance

1. Civic Life may issue an MRL to a Marijuana Business or Medical Dispensary under the following conditions:
 - a. The location has passed the final inspection and final application review;
 - b. The license fee has been paid, and;
 - (1) The City has received proof that the business to be licensed has been approved by the Oregon Health Authority at the proposed location, if the Marijuana Business is a Medical Dispensary, or;
 - (2) The City has received proof that the business to be licensed has been approved by the Oregon Liquor Control Commission at the proposed location, for all other Marijuana Businesses.
2. The applicant will be notified of approval and given 14 days to pick up their license and pay the fee.
3. Licenses will be issued to the applicant after payment is received in person.
4. License fees must be paid in person by cash, check or credit card on specified days and times as available on the Cannabis Program website.

O. Posting a Marijuana Regulatory License

1. Marijuana Businesses and Medical Dispensaries must post their MRL, issued by Civic Life, in the interior of the building, visible and accessible to customers and inspectors.

P. License Renewal

1. Civic Life shall provide notice of the expiration of a MRL to the Licensee no less than 45 days prior to the expiration date.
2. Licensees must submit the following to renew their license prior to the expiration of the MRL:
 - a. Completed MRL application form;
 - b. Completed Personal History forms for all applicants including the Primary Contact, owners, managers and PRD (person responsible for dispensary);
 - c. Proof of State Licensure or Registration with the appropriate State Agency:
 - (1) Oregon Medical Marijuana Dispensary Registration issued by the Oregon Health Authority; or
 - (2) State Marijuana License issued by the Oregon Liquor Control Commission License for Marijuana Retailers, Producers, Processors and Wholesalers.
 - d. Completed Marijuana Control Plan;
 - e. Security Alarm Permit issued by the Portland Police Bureau Alarms Unit;
 - f. Documented proof of access and use of the proposed location such as a Lease or title to the real property. If the documentation provided is a Lease, it must be executed and current at the time application and through license issuance and must be accompanied by written consent from the property owner allowing the premises to be used for the proposed license category; and
 - g. The specified fee.
3. Any licensee who submits a completed renewal MRL application with Civic Life at least 30 days before the date the MRL license expires may continue to operate as if the MRL were renewed, pending a licensing determination by Civic Life.
 - a. Any licensee who does not submit a completed renewal application at least 30 days before the existing license expires must stop engaging in any licensed activity when the MRL expires.
 - b. If Civic Life receives a completed MRL renewal application less than 30 days before the date the existing MRL expires, the applicant may be subject to a late renewal fee. Civic Life shall, upon receipt of the renewal MRL renewal application and appropriate late renewal fee, issue a letter of authority to operate beyond the expiration of the MRL, pending a licensing determination by Civic Life.
 - c. A licensee must not engage in any licensed activity after the MRL expires. If Civic Life receives a completed MRL renewal application within 30 days after the date the existing MRL expires, Civic Life will, upon receipt of the renewal

MRL renewal application and appropriate late renewal fee, issue a letter of authority to operate beyond the expiration of the MRL, pending a licensing determination by Civic Life.

- d. Civic Life will not renew a MRL if Civic Life receives the MRL renewal application more than 30 days after the MRL expires. The 1000-foot buffer perimeter established for a Licensed Medical Dispensary or a Marijuana Retailer shall be removed 30 days after the MRL expires. A person who wants to resume licensed activity in this circumstance must submit a completed new MRL application in accordance with Section C.; Application Procedure.

Q. Change in ownership of a license

1. If a valid MRL is held at a location, an application may be submitted for a Change of Ownership without loss of the 1000-foot buffer perimeter established for a Licensed Medical Dispensary or a Licensed Marijuana Retailer.
2. If ownership of the business entity changes by 50% or more, a new application is required.
 - a. The MRL application must include:
 - (1) Documentation that the current Licensee for the location is aware of the application;
 - (2) The footprint of the proposed location is materially the same;
 - (3) The current license has not expired; and
 - (4) The completed MRL application has been received with the specified fee in accordance with Section C.; Application Procedure.
3. If ownership of the licensed entity changes by less than 50%, a change in partnership form is required within 10 business days of the change, and will be treated as the same licensee. The request must be made in writing and must be delivered via email, US mail or in person to Civic Life. An ownership change of less than 50% may only be performed once in a 90-day period without having to reapply as described in Subsection Q.2.
 - a. The request must be submitted by the Primary Contact or Legal Representative and must include the following information:
 - (1) Business Legal Name and DBA;
 - (2) Physical and mailing address;
 - (3) MRL number; and
 - (4) Updated Personal History Forms for each owner; and
 - (5) A statement to request the change in ownership that describes the changes.

R. Change in ownership of a MRL application

1. If ownership of the business entity changes by 50% or more, a new application is required; and will be treated as new in time, and will require a new fee to be submitted. The original application's position in line will be forfeited.
2. If ownership of the licensed entity changes by less than 50%, a change in partnership form is required within 10 business days of the change, and will be treated as the same application.
3. The request must be made in writing and must be delivered via email, US mail or in person to Civic Life.
 - a. The request must be submitted by the Primary Contact or Legal Representative and must include the following information:
 - (1) Business Legal Name and DBA;
 - (2) Physical and mailing address;
 - (3) MRL number; and
 - (4) Updated Personal History Forms for each owner; and
 - (5) A statement to request the change in ownership that describes the changes.

S. Change in operation

1. Any change in hours of operation, address, floor plan, Marijuana Control Plan, or Primary Contact must be submitted to the Cannabis Program within 10 business days of the change via email or US mail.

T. Violation notice and penalties

1. Notice of violation of these Administrative Guidelines or PCC 14B.130 shall be sent to the Primary Contact or Legal Representative of the licensed location, or to the registered agent of the business, or to the entity reasonably assumed to be responsible for the business. This also includes locations for which no record of application exists but the Cannabis Program staff believe the business should be licensed by the City of Portland Cannabis Program.
2. The business shall be given 10 business days to respond to the notice.
3. Penalties in the amount of up to $5,000 per day may be assessed.
4. The Cannabis Program reserves the right to reduce violations in any way seen fit in order to bring businesses fully in compliance.
