City Hall, Lovejoy Room (2nd floor)

1221 SW 4th Ave.

AGENDA

5:30 Welcome, Introductions, and Review of the Agenda

- Introductions: Name, bureau, and/or community organization affiliation(s)

5:40 Public Comment

5:50 BACs recommendations report discussion

Selecting a few and drilling down

Who are the people on the BAC and how did they get there?

Is the BAC achieving what it was set up to achieve?

Do not have the components to make clear concise data to make decisions

Does PIAC have teeth in recommendations it make to Council?

Road map of how to get involved – Best practices to get people involved.

Use art & community to work in partnership

Does PIAC need more time to review “What does BACs do” so that they can advise citywide on the role of BACs.

BAC recruitment and retention. Budget participatory model.

Clear about what PIAC is going to be doing include workplan for next year at the next meeting agenda.

Identify the limitation of the process and give the recommendations that were highlighted.

These are the things that we are looking for from BACs. Develop a tool that BACs will use.

PIAC start developing projects for 2020.

6:30 PIAC Bylaws review

The bylaws were reviewed with the recommended changes. A clean copy with final edits incorporated, will be sent out for a last review by PIAC before it is moved forward for adoption.

City of Portland
Public Involvement Advisory Council (PIAC)

Draft PIAC Meeting Agreements:

Everyone here is wise

We are stronger together

Share the air: Does what I'm about to say lend necessary clarity, address an important point, and/or move the group towards decision-making

One voice, one mic

Listen to understand

Criticize ideas, not people

Bring a spirit of negotiation and co-creation

Honor others' perspectives
