

BUD CLARK COMMONS

NW Hoyt Street and Broadway, Portland OR

Six-Month Update
January 2012

Opened in June 2011, the Bud Clark Commons is an innovative partnership among the City of Portland, Multnomah County, Home Forward and Transition Projects that provides vital resources to help people experiencing homelessness gain stability and move into housing.

APARTMENTS

Each resident has a primary health care provider, access to vital services, and greater connection with their community.

130 chronically homeless people now have a safe place to call home

39 people are newly-enrolled in mental health services

DOREEN'S PLACE

Doreen's Place Shelter is home for 90 men working to get back on their feet. Half are veterans.

300 men served

140 veterans stayed at Doreen's Place – 38 left the shelter for permanent homes

DAY CENTER

4,300 people served

2,000 connected to social services

290 found permanent homes

600 people visited in a single day

"I appreciate a hand up,
not a hand out."

COMMUNITY PARTNERS

Portland Animal Welfare Team	Linfield College
Cascadia Behavioral Health	University of Portland
Vocational Rehabilitation	Downtown Chapel
DePaul Treatment Center	Central City Concern
Disability Action Advocates	MercyCorps
Oregon Food Bank	Pacific University
OR Dept of Human Services	Lifeworks
Portland Women's Crisis Line	Walgreens
Radio Cab	Outside In
NW Portland Ministries	NARA
Veterans Administration
OR College of Oriental Medicine
City of Portland Office of Neighborhood Involvement
University of Western States	