

Retirement Process Checklist

All Members

1. Contact FPDR for appointment to sign your pension application. Make an appointment with Beth Baisch 503.823.5502, and tell her your first day of retirement benefits (day after your last day of employment) and the accrual rate you will be selecting. In addition to signing your pension application, you will fill out a tax withholding form and a direct deposit authorization form – please bring a check that can be voided to sign up for direct deposit.
2. Contact your Deferred Compensation investment provider.
For questions on your options please contact
Jeanine Keller 503.823.6140
For VOYA, call 503.937.0378 or 800.238.6281
For Advantis Credit Union, call 503.785.2527 or 800.547.5532
3. Contact all agencies that are receiving a voluntary deduction from your payroll, such as the credit union, charitable organization, etc. Taxes, health insurance and child support are the only deductions made from pension benefits.
4. You do NOT need to contact the Benefits Office prior to your retirement. Upon receipt of the notice of separation prepared by your bureau, the Benefits Office will send you a packet of information.
