- Ms. Ross commended the Use of Deadly Force Workgroup looking into PPB's training division practice
- A community member asked Chair Wilson if any of the Committee members or even members of the community able to observe the actual Portland Police training?
 - CRC members were able to go through a "Citizen Academy" training where they get to go through some of the trainings that an officer receive
 - Captain Famou made a comment that the issue of letting community members observe the training of Portland Police officers has been an ongoing dialogue between the Training Division Captain and the Chief. In the past, The Auditor and several other people were able to observe some of the trainings. There's actually a Training Advisory Council that serves as oversight of the Training Division, but he wasn't sure if the Advisory Council is able to observe the actual training
- Mr. Handelman comments:

- He urged CRC members to turn in their comments regarding code changes by tomorrow since that is the day IPR will have to turn in the Council package to the Council Clerk for the hearing next Wednesday
- Regarding the appeal time line, he would like the language to be written as “at least 14 days” that way, the appeal window cannot be cut shorter
- He appreciated Assistant Program Manager Mortimer read the entire list of shootings into the record
- He would like CRC to add onto their agenda some time to talk about PPB directives
- He has not gotten respond from IPR staff on why the Citizen Academy training wasn’t open to the public
- Chair Wilson would like the Auditor to liaise with the Bureau to possibly get some of the CRC members to sit on the Training Advisory Council
- Mr. Young asked Assistant Program Manager Mortimer if IPR can send him a copy of the final draft of proposed code changes
 - The final draft is currently on the front page of IPR’s website
- Ms. Malone asked Mr. Young if he can summarize the proposed code changes?
 - The main point is to get the Committee to be efficient by combining a case file review and appeal hearing in to one meeting. The Committee can vote to conduct an appeal hearing right after the case file review meeting
