

POLICE REVIEW BOARD APPLICATION

Community Volunteers to Serve on The Police Review Board

POLICE REVIEW BOARD

The Police Review Board is an advisory body to the Chief of the Portland Police Bureau. The Board makes recommendations to the Chief regarding findings and discipline and may make recommendations regarding the adequacy and completeness of an investigation. It may also make policy or training recommendations to the Chief.

The Board reviews incidents and complaints of misconduct about Portland Police Bureau members in the following situations: those that may result in suspension of pay, instances when officers discharge their weapons, and in-custody deaths. Other cases can be referred for Board review by the Chief, high-ranking Police supervisors, or the Auditor's Independent Police Review director.

The Board is made up of Police personnel, a representative of the Auditor's Independent Police Review, and community members. Members hear evidence presented from a number of perspectives and vote on recommendations that go to the Chief.

COMMUNITY MEMBERS OF THE PRB

- Candidates are recommended by the City Auditor and confirmed by City Council to serve as needed.
- Community volunteers are appointed for a term of no more than three years, but may serve two full terms plus the remainder of any unexpired vacancy they may be appointed to fill.

EXPECTATIONS OF CANDIDATES

- Must be impartial;
- Must not have real or perceived bias for or against the police or any real or perceived conflict of interest in a particular case;
- Must pass a criminal background check performed by the Police Bureau;
- Must demonstrate an ability to review complex investigations;
- Must demonstrate an ability to make rational and independent decisions under pressure;
- Must participate in orientation and training about Police Bureau training and policies;
- Must occasionally ride with Police officers to maintain sufficient knowledge of patrol procedures;
- Must sign confidentiality statements and uphold the tenants of those statements;
- Must be sensitive to cultural and ethnic diversity and respectful of Board member differences.
- Must be a Portland, Oregon resident or business owner.

Applications must be received at the IPR office in City Hall by 5:00pm on Thursday, July 14, 2016. Mail or deliver the application in person at 1221 SW 4th Avenue, Room 140, Portland, OR 97204. Applications may be e-mailed to ipr@portlandoregon.gov or be faxed to 503-823-4571. An electronic application form is available on IPR's website at www.Portlandoregon.gov/ipr — as well as reports and information regarding IPR and CRC. If you have any questions, please call the IPR office at 503-823-0146.

Applications will be evaluated by a selection committee that includes the Auditor's Independent Police Review director (or designee), a Police representative, and at least one community member. Qualified candidates will be asked to interview with the selection committee. Every attempt will be made to select qualified people who represent the demographic and ethnic diversity of Portland. The City Auditor will recommend the names of selected candidates to City Council for appointment to the Police Review Board.

Please note that a redacted copy of this application will be made public if you are recommended for City Council appointment.

Microsoft Word and Adobe PDF versions of this application form are available at www.portlandoregon.gov/ipr.

Service on the Police Review Board requires objectivity, fairness, impartiality, and lack of bias – either for or against law enforcement. Perceived or actual conflicts of interest may exist for some applicants. Such conflicts may not necessarily disqualify service on the Board but should be disclosed for consideration by the City Auditor and City Council. Attach an additional sheet, if needed.

What interests you about participating on the Chief’s Police Review Board?

What contacts (positive or negative) have you had with police?

Describe any personal attitudes, life experiences, and prior examples that demonstrate you can make objective, impartial, evidence - based decisions about complaints against the police.

Have you, a close friend, or a family member ever worked or volunteered in the criminal justice system? If yes, please describe.

Describe your comfort level in reviewing complex deadly use of force investigations and making recommendations for findings and discipline.

Please provide an example of your experience analyzing, interpreting, explaining and applying relevant laws, regulations, ordinances, and policies.

Describe your perceptions of the police and how you came to hold these perceptions?
