On November 29th, 2014, one of several demonstrations occurred in response to the grand jury decision in Ferguson, Missouri. Protesters gathered and traveled through several Downtown Portland locations, including SW 3rd Avenue between Main and Madison, eventually to SW 6th and Morrison and SW 2nd and Main Street. At SW 2nd and Main Street, the PPB Sound Truck informed protestors that they were all under arrest. Some protestors were taken into custody and the remaining people were dispersed from the location.

- Director Severe provided IPR side of the investigation:
 - Investigator Berry, and Perez conducted the re-investigation of the case and there were 2 allegations added for Commander B and Sergeant A
 - People who were re-interviewed are: The Appellant, Sergeant A, Commander B, Sergeant E and Captain F as well as witness 1 who is a law profession at Lewis and Clark

- The Appellant stated during her re-interview with IPR that she had participated in a “die in” on November 29, 2014 where several demonstrators were gathering in the intersection of 2nd and Main. She was there for like 5 minutes and then she was surrounded by police officers and told that she and other people were under arrest. People who participated in the “die in” were held between 30 and 45 minutes
- Witness 1 who is a law school profession explained to IPR the differences between an arrest and a detention
- Sergeant A is an operation Sergeant during the protest. He operated under incident command system under Commander B. His particular task was providing direction to the Sergeants which in turn, providing direction to individual squad of officers
- There was a discussion of using the box-in technique before it happened. Commanded B authorized the use of the technique.
- Sergeant A thought that the use of the Box-in technique is within Bureau’s policy
- Sergeant E recalled the LRAD being used. He estimated a quarter to half of the protestors left after the warning was given. He also mentioned his squad moving from the south side to the west side of Central Precinct
- Sergeant E articulated the individuals that they were given authorization to be taking into custody. They were looking for people who were involved in the protest throughout the night and was specifically given the warning not the people who just being caught up to the protest
- Captain F is a member of the Rapid Response Team (RRT). He stated RRT had been provided with some training on the box-in technique. It has been used previously to safely remove police officers
- Commander B authorized the use of the box-in technique to detain people on the street. The purpose of the announcement about everyone is under arrest is to help determine who is who, if there’s somebody who is not supposed to be there
- Commander B stated during her interview that she thought she had the authority to make those arrests
- Appellant’s representative made some comments on behalf of the Appellant:
 - What is a relevant of interviewing a law professor making a determination of a constitutional matter?
 - Was there any third party looking into the constitutionality of the arrest?
 - Was constitutional matter looked at during the re-investigation process?
- Chair Malone made a comment this is more of a factual statement of the Appellant on her side of the story
- Appellant made a comment that she is uncomfortable making a statement without support from a legal advisor and requested that the Committee delay the appeal hearing
- Director Severe made a comment he also doesn’t feel comfortable moving forward with the appeal since the Appellant is not comfortable moving forward and suggested the Committee to move this appeal to next month’s meeting
- Chair Malone asked Director Severe if there’s a possibility for IPR to appoint an attorney for the Appellant as she requested?
 - This is an administrative process. Everything that we do is guided by City codes. We don’t have the ability to give anyone an attorney. We do provide the Appellant with an Appeal Process Advisor and phone number to a NLG law school student advocate that can assist her with the whole process. Ms. Raiford made a request for the DOJ to be notified and I did notified them
