

CITIZEN REVIEW COMMITTEE 2019 RECRUITMENT

CIVILIAN OVERSIGHT

The Portland City Auditor's Independent Police Review (IPR) division is responsible for the civilian oversight of the Portland Police Bureau (Police Bureau). Citizen Review Committee (CRC) is an advisory body to IPR and the Police Bureau.

CRC members are appointed by Portland City Council to serve three-year terms. Candidates must be Portland, Oregon residents or business owners as well as be impartial and objective in regards to law enforcement.

CITIZEN REVIEW COMMITTEE MEMBER RESPONSIBILITIES

- Hold public meetings to hear community and Police Bureau member appeals of police misconduct investigations;
- Listen to community concerns regarding police conduct;
- Participate in trainings and activities to increase cultural awareness and responsiveness;
- Engage in training and other activities to learn about policing;
- Review Police Bureau policies and procedures;
- Advise IPR on complaint handling processes;
- Interact with elected officials; and
- Periodically serve on the Police Review Board, an advisory body to the Chief of Police that makes recommendations as to findings and propose officer discipline of sworn members.

CANDIDATE QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPECTATIONS

- Demonstrate ability to be impartial and objective;
- Possess sound communication and listening skills;
- Lead and function well in a group;
- Maintain high standards of confidentiality; and
- Act as an appeal body member and become familiar with the relevant City Code and protocols in conducting appeal hearings and other duties.
- Be willing to make a substantial time commitment—including trainings, monthly evening meetings, workgroup meetings, and independent review of complaint files.

Applications must be received at the IPR office in City Hall by 5:00pm on Thursday, September 5, 2019. Mail or deliver the application in person at 1221 SW 4th Avenue, Room 140, Portland, OR 97204. Also, applications may be e-mailed to crc@portlandoregon.gov or be faxed to 503-823-4571. An electronic application form is available on IPR's website at www.portlandoregon.gov/ipr — as well as reports and information regarding IPR and CRC. If you have any questions, please call the IPR office at 503-823-0146.

Every effort is made to select qualified persons who represent the demographic and ethnic diversity of Portland. Applications are evaluated and scored by a selection committee and the most qualified applicants are asked to appear for an interview. Selected applicants are asked to submit to a background check (each applicant is reviewed individually and results of a background check do not necessarily preclude service on CRC), and are then submitted by the City Auditor for City Council appointment to a three-year term.

This important community service will require a significant time commitment (an estimated seven to nine hours each week). CRC members act as an appeal body, and must become familiar with all relevant City codes and protocols in appeal hearing and other duties. CRC members attend regular monthly evening meetings (the first Wednesday each month) that often require advance preparation – such as reviewing case files for upcoming hearings, on occasion, there are additional meetings scheduled. CRC members also serve on various workgroups (sub-committees), which meet separately (generally, one or two meetings each month) and have additional workloads – such as reviewing complaints or policies. Additionally, CRC members will periodically serve on the Police Review Board to make thoughtful impartial, fact-based recommendation for discipline in use of force incidents to the Chief of Police and Police Commissioner. There are orientation and training sessions that members attend, including ride-alongs with police officers.

Are you willing and able to make the above CRC time commitment? Yes No

Service on this committee requires honesty and integrity. If any of the questions are not answered truthfully, the applicant will be disqualified from membership on the committee.
