

Independent Police Review
Complaint Investigator
Two Positions Opening

The Complaint Investigator positions in the City Auditor's Independent Police Review (IPR) are responsible for independently investigating complaints made by community members against the Portland Police Bureau. IPR is charged with civilian oversight of the Police Bureau and is located in the Auditor's Office to ensure its independence. Duties range from initial complaint processing, intake interviews to establish the basis of an allegation, designing and conducting investigations, and analyzing applicable precedents and policies. The Complaint Investigators meet with members of the public, witnesses, police officials, and others and are expected to carry out duties and responsibilities with initiative, independence, and creativity while exercising sound professional judgment and problem-solving skills. A background in law enforcement or criminal defense investigation is strongly preferred, but not required. Investigative experience is required.

As a part of promoting an open and accountable government, the Auditor's Office values a diverse workforce and seeks ways to foster a culture of equity, diversity and inclusion in the bureau's public services and everyday interactions in the workplace. The Office encourages candidates with knowledge, ability and experience working with a broad range of individuals and diverse communities to apply.

The recruitment for these positions will open on July 24, 2017 and close on August 4, 2017, or when 150 applications are received, whichever comes first. To apply for or learn more about the job, please visit www.portlandoregon.gov/bhr/54930 after it opens.
