Third Quarter Community Complaints Data

Preliminary Count of Community Complaints
Q3 2017 - Q3 2018

IPR and Internal Affairs received 102 community complaints during July, August, and September of 2018. This was 15 fewer than last quarter but only 1 more complaint than the third quarter of 2017.

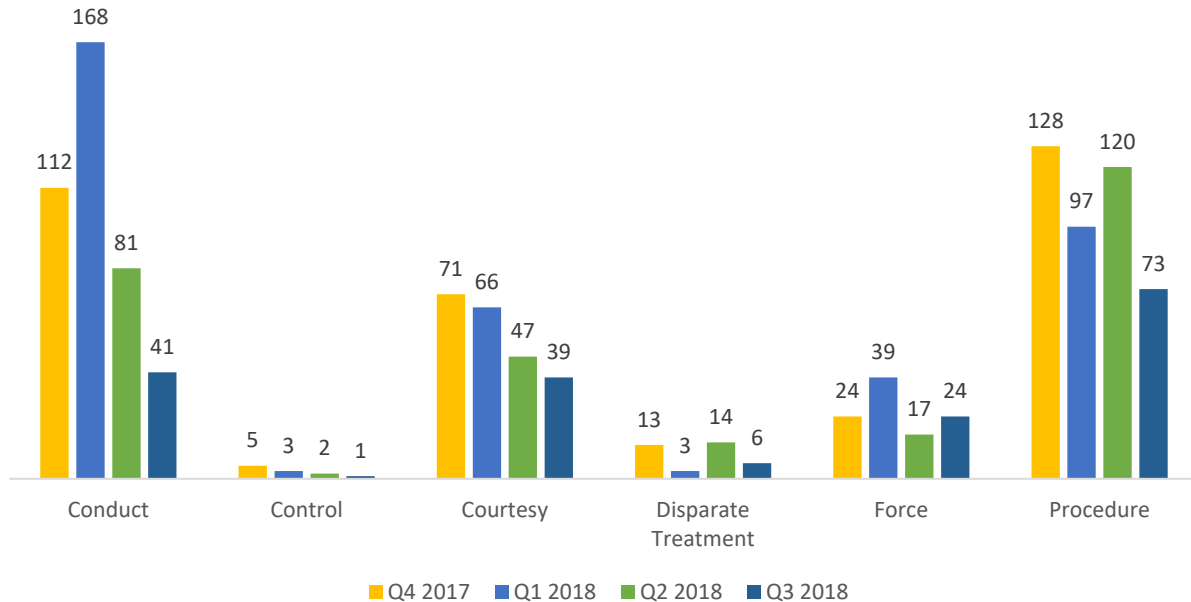

Eighty-eight of the complaints were received by IPR and fourteen came through Internal Affairs. Of the IPR complaints, three were opened by IPR as independent investigations, nine were referred to Internal Affairs and intake is ongoing for eight complaints. Forty-two complaints were administratively closed, most commonly because no misconduct was identified. Twenty-three complaints were referred to officers' supervisors for investigation and three were referred to a precinct commander for follow-up. No complaints entered mediation during this quarter.

Though many cases are still in progress and additional allegations will likely be added, community complaints made in the third quarter of 2018 contained 194 allegations.

Preliminary Count of Community Allegations by Category

Findings were completed for 91 allegations (from 30 cases) in the third quarter of 2018. Sixteen percent (15) of those allegations were sustained.
