

New Deputy IPR Director Selected

The City Auditor has named Dana Walton-Macaulay as the new Deputy Director of the Independent Police Review. Walton-Macaulay came to IPR from Portland State University, where she worked as the Director of the Office of Student Conduct. She brings more than 20 years of experience in investigating and adjudicating conduct matters to the Independent Police Review.

Deputy Director Walton-Macaulay joins Director Ross Caldwell to complete IPR's new leadership team. IPR will also hire an Investigator and Investigations Coordinator in the coming months.

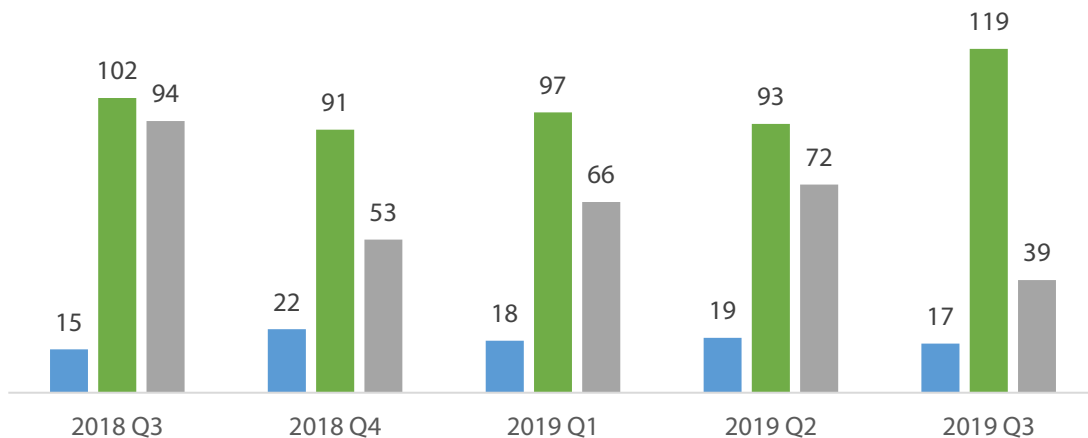

Interactive Dashboards

IPR maintains interactive dashboards showing trends in complaints, allegations, findings and more since 2011. Data supporting these dashboards is updated quarterly.

Third Quarter Data

IPR and Internal Affairs received 119 complaints from community members and 17 bureau complaints that did not involve community members during July, August, and September of 2019. Community and bureau members also filed 39 commendations during that period.

Preliminary Count of Bureau Complaints, Community Complaints and Commendations

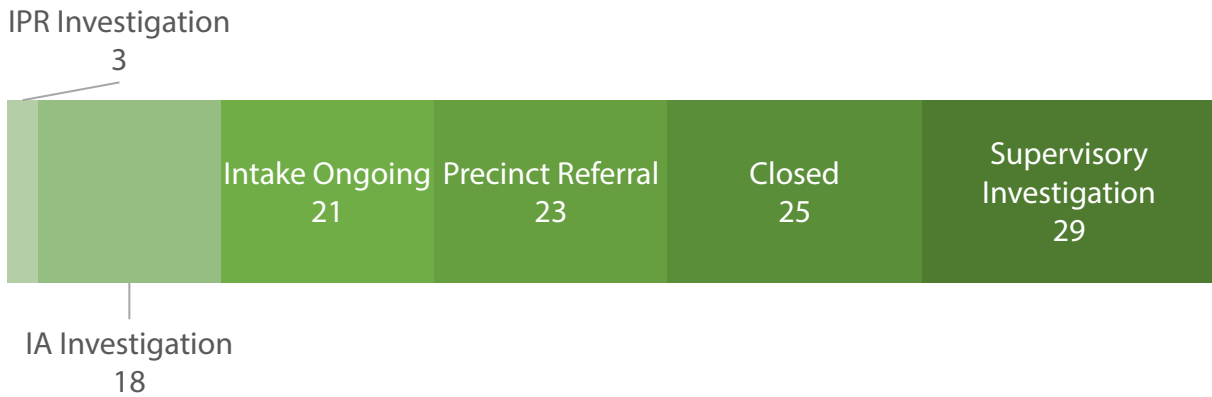

Community Complaints

One hundred four of the community complaints were received by IPR and 15 came through Internal Affairs. IPR opened three cases as independent investigations, Internal Affairs is investigating 18 cases and intake is ongoing for 21 complaints. Twenty-five complaints were administratively closed, most commonly because no misconduct was identified. Twenty-nine complaints were referred to officers' supervisors for investigation and another 23 were referred to precinct commanders for follow-up.

Status of 2019 Community Complaints

Bureau Complaints

Of the 17 cases reported by bureau members in the third quarter, 13 are being investigated by Internal Affairs and one by IPR. Two cases were closed and intake is ongoing for one complaint.

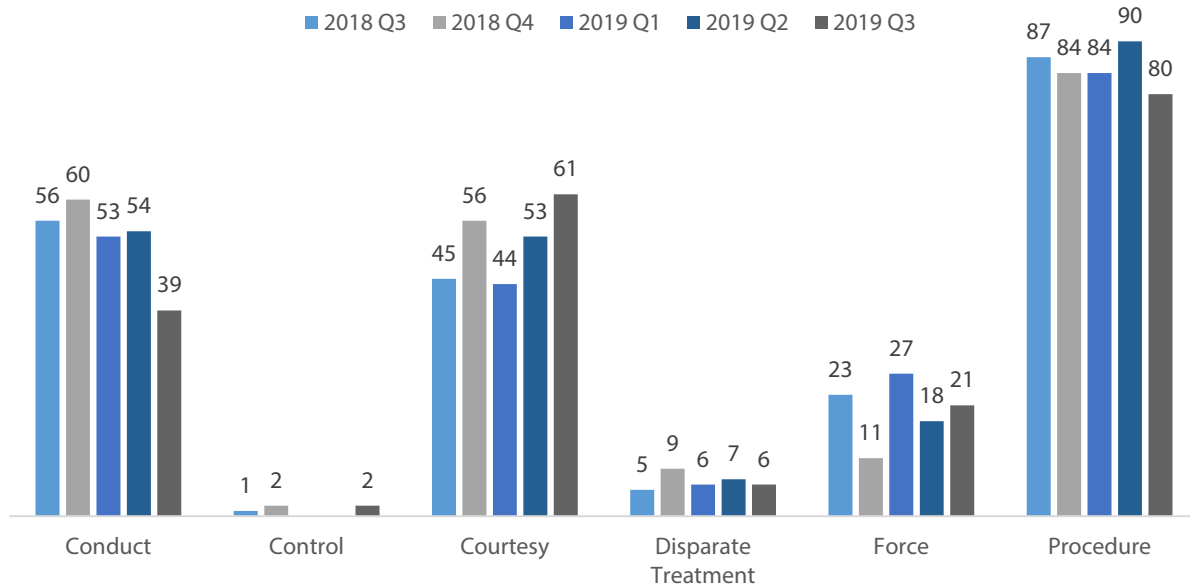

Status of 2019 Q3 Bureau Cases

Community Allegations

Though many cases are still in progress and additional allegations will likely be added, community complaints made in the third quarter of 2019 contained 209 allegations.

Preliminary Count of Community Allegations by Category

Findings in Community Cases

Findings were completed for 29 allegations from community members (from 10 full investigations) in the third quarter of 2019. Ten percent (3) of those allegations were sustained.

Finding	Number of Allegations	Percent of Allegations
Sustained	3	10%
Not Sustained	3	10%
Not Sustained w/ debriefing	1	3%
Exonerated	9	31%
Exonerated w/ debriefing	2	7%
Unfounded	11	38%
Unfounded w/ debriefing	0	0%
Total	29

Sustained: The preponderance of evidence proves a violation of policy or procedure.*

Not Sustained: The evidence was insufficient to prove a violation of policy or procedure.*

Exonerated: The preponderance of evidence proves the member's conduct was lawful and within policy.*

Unfounded: The preponderance of evidence proves the allegation was false or devoid of fact or there was not a credible basis for a possible violation of policy or procedure.*

Cases that are referred to supervisors for investigation also receive findings. In the third quarter of 2019 findings were completed for 38 allegations from 20 cases sent for supervisory investigation. After talking with complainants, supervisors found four of the allegations to be substantiated and 34 unsubstantiated. All of these allegations dealt with potential conduct, courtesy or procedure violations.
