Open & Accountable Elections Program

What is the Open & Accountable Elections Program?

The Open & Accountable Elections (OAE) Program is a voluntary small donor matching program for Portland's citywide elections. OAE is a new option for candidates who want to fund their campaigns with small-dollar donations.

It is modeled after proven successes across the country, which have amplified the impact and reach of small donors in cities across America.

Why Should Campaigns Consider Participating in the Program?

By participating in this new program your campaign can send the message that you believe in a democracy where each of us is represented and has a voice and a government that works for every Portlander, not just the wealthy few. Candidates who follow the rules and collect enough small contributions from qualified donors get donations matched six-to-one, up to $50 per donor. So, a $50 donation from a Portland resident receives $300 in public money.

Mayoral campaigns that participate in OAE can receive up to $304,000 in matching funds during the primary and up to $456,000 in matching funds during the general election. Campaigns for Commissioner or Auditor can receive up to $200,000 during the primary and up to $240,000 during the general election.

The funds for these campaign donation matches come from the newly established Public Election Fund for the City of Portland. Campaigns which are uncontested will not receive public funds.

NOTE: Participating campaigns must begin compliance with the program now.
