

HELP MAKE PORTLAND PARKS & RECREATION ACCESSIBLE FOR ALL

Learn how over time the PP&R ADA TRANSITION PLAN will increase accessibility in parks, community centers and trails! There are more than 20,000 physical barriers identified in parks and parks buildings (everything from doorknobs to ramps to picnic tables and pools). Learn what it will take to remove these barriers and increase access for every Portlander!

HOW CAN YOU HELP?

1

ATTEND A PUBLIC FORUM:
JULY 18, 21, 23

ASL Interpretation provided at all Public Forums.

Site	Address	Date	Time	Tri-Met Bus Stop
Charles Jordan Community Center	9009 N Foss Ave	Saturday, July 18	10-12 noon *10:30 am program	#4 Fessenden
Multnomah Arts Center	7688 SW Capitol Hwy	Tuesday, July 21	6-8 pm *6:30 pm program	#44 PCC/Sylvania #45 Garden Home
East Portland Community Center	740 SE 106 Ave	Thursday, July 23	6-8 pm *6:30 pm program	#15 Belmont #20 Burnside/Stark

2

View draft plan online and provide comments (Submit comments on-line by July 24, 2015):

- www.portlandoregon.gov/parks/ada

3

Read a copy of the draft plan at one of the following locations:

- OEHR office (SW)
- Midland Library (SE)
- St. Johns Library (N)
- Portland Parks & Recreation Office (SW)

For more information or accommodations, please contact Carla Waring:

Carla.Waring@portlandoregon.gov or 503-823-2568. To help ensure equal access to City programs, services and activities, the city of Portland will provide translation, reasonably modify policies/procedures and provide auxiliary aids/services/alternative formats to persons with disabilities. For accommodations, translations, complaints, and additional information contact (503) 823-4072, use City TTY (503) 823-6868, or use Oregon Relay Service: 711.

PORTLAND PARKS & RECREATION

Healthy Parks, Healthy Portland

www.PortlandParks.org
Amanda Fritz, Commissioner
Mike Abbaté, Director

