

OMF W.I.S.E ~ First Friday Fun Facts

It's Spring (at least by the calendar) & things are getting greener! It's a good time to think about "green" things you can do:

The Wednesday Farmers Market begins on April 30 up in the Park Blocks. Get it on your calendar today! You can walk to the market during lunch – purchase fresh locally grown food, get a little exercise, save time and a trip to the market after work, and you can bring your own reusable bag to carry your purchases home

The grass is starting to grow so it's a good time to tune up your lawn mower (or consider changing to an electric or rotary mower) and think about adding some native plants to your garden.

There are lots of sustainability events coming up! Check out the following links to workshops, classes and expos coming up soon.
