

Service: City Spectator Facilities

Description: The City owns a number of entertainment facilities that are operated by private entities the City contracts with for facilities management including Providence Park, Rose Quarter (Veterans Memorial Coliseum), and Portland's Center for the Arts. The City entered into master agreements with venue managers so any inquiries about facility management should be directed to venue managers. The City Spectator Facilities Liaison is Karl Lisle, 503-823-5876, karl.lisle@portlandoregon.gov – they oversee operations of the facilities with regards to the city operation agreements with these venue managers.

Providence Park - managed by Peregrine Sports LLC. Timbers are also owned by Peregrine Sports. 503-553-5400, info@portlandtimbers.com. Anything pertaining to facilities management should be directed to them.

Rose Quarter - Rose Quarter includes The Moda Center (formerly the Rose Garden) and Memorial Coliseum. The Rose Quarter is jointly owned by the Vulcan Sports and Entertainment (VSE) and the City of Portland. VSE owns the The Moda Center and the underlying land; the City owns the remainder of the Rose Quarter premises including the Coliseum. Rose Quarter Main Office: 503-235-8771, email contact via online form at <https://rosequarter.com/connect-with-us/#contactus> Information directly pertaining to the Memorial Coliseum – Karl Lisle, 503-823-5876, karl.lisle@portlandoregon.gov

Portland's Center for the Arts – managed by the Metropolitan Exposition Recreation Commission, a subsidiary of Metro. 503-248-4335, info@portland5.com

PCPA includes following venues:
