1. Please describe how your business will ensure that no one under the age of 21 is admitted, and how your business will educate patrons on the risks of marijuana use by minors.

We maintain control of the dispensary with security doors and electronic key access for authorized personnel only. We check identification of every person who comes in and we refuse entry for people who either do not have proper ID or are under 21. We have a sign posted at the front desk to let everyone know this is our store policy and there are no exceptions.

2. Please describe how your business will prevent cannabis products from being consumed around or near your business.

Panacea has all the required public education signage about not consuming on or near the premises. Also, the shop is located on a commercial block with several businesses. There is regular foot-traffic and restaurants with outdoor seating, which are natural discouragements to public consumption.

3. Please describe how your business will prevent and address potential negative impacts to neighborhood livability such as noise, parking, garbage, or loitering from your patrons.

Panacea is on one of the nicer blocks of Sandy Boulevard and we have been a big part of the revitalization. It is an all-commercial block and we business owners are friendly and work together to keep the block looking good. Panacea paid to repaint our storefront and the neighbor's, and had the sidewalks power-washed. We also have an art gallery in our lobby with high quality art, which adds a significant cultural resource to the neighborhood. We share on-street parking with all businesses on the block, and there have been no conflicts.

4. Please briefly describe your business's process to respond to and resolve complaints and/or concerns from neighboring businesses or residences.

Panacea's founder and co-owner, Melissa Egan, is a professional mediator, has a Master's degree in Conflict Resolution, and worked in collaborative governance/multi-party facilitation before entering the cannabis industry. Long before the dispensary opened, Melissa met with the Chair of the Neighborhood Association to introduce herself and the business, and to make herself available to be on the agenda at any time to answer questions of concerns from the neighbors. Nothing has ever come up, and Melissa checks in periodically with the Chair.
