

Get Ready for the 2017 State Legislative Session!

Legislative Advocacy 101 Panel and Community Forum with Commissioner Amanda Fritz

Thursday, December 1, 2016

6:00 to 8:45 p.m.

Tabor Space

5441 SE Belmont St.

Legislative Advocacy 101 Panel: 6 PM – 7:35 PM

This “Advocacy 101” event will provide community members with tips on how to be an effective advocate for your community or neighborhood during this upcoming 2017 state legislative session. A panel of elected officials and professional advocates will share their advice and answer questions about how the community can make an impact on public policy at the state level.

Moderator:

- Martha Pellegrino, Director, Office of Government Relations

Panelists:

- Karmen Fore, Transportation and Sustainable Communities & Transportation Policy Advisor, Office of Governor Brown
- Representative Lew Frederick (HD 43)
- Andrea Miller, Executive Director of Causa and Fair Shot Coalition member
- Representative Carla Piluso (HD 50)

Information you will gain from the panel:

- How to work effectively with legislators and their staff
- Strategies for mobilizing your base of membership or coalitions to maximize advocacy impact
- Lobbying do’s and don’ts

Legislative Agenda Community Forum: 7:35 PM – 8:45 PM

Commissioner Amanda Fritz invites you to participate in a Community Forum to give your input into the City's state legislative agenda.

Opportunity for interactive engagement with Commissioner Fritz:

- Overview and explanation of the City's draft legislative priorities
- What are the issues your community is facing? What issues would you like to see advanced by the legislature?
- Group exercise to identify community and neighborhood priorities.
