COMMUNITY GARDENS PROGRAM SCHOLARSHIP INFORMATION

Portland Parks & Recreation (PP&R) recognizes that some limited-income residents of the City of Portland require financial assistance to obtain a community garden plot. The information requested below is confidential and necessary to track the assistance we are providing for each applicant.

Financial Assistance Process:

1. Fill out the front side of this application.
2. Request assistance by submitting this application.
3. PP&R will notify you of your award and send you an invoice for your portion of the fee.

Scholarship requests are granted based on income eligibility. Please indicate your yearly family income and number of household members below. We can provide up to 75% scholarship assistance. When an individual applies for a second scholarship within a 12-month period, proof of household income is required. Acceptable forms for verification include: Most recent 1040 income tax return, proof of current Social Security benefits (SSA Benefit Statement or SSA — 1099), proof of disability pay (SSI), proof of current OHP (Oregon Health Plan) or Oregon Trail (food stamps) award letter.
