

Community members are welcome to comment on issues before the Portland Parks Board.

Please refer to information in “Portland Parks Board - role in taking public input” dated December 3, 2014, posted online at portlandoregon.gov/parks/article/514257.

The volunteers serving on the mayor-appointed Portland Parks Board advise the Council, Parks Commissioner, and PP&R Director on policy matters pertaining to Portland Parks and Recreation.

The Parks Board meets regularly on the first Tuesday of each month at 3:00 pm; meetings are open to the public. If you would like to give input in person, you may fill out this form and turn it in prior to the day of the meeting to the Parks Board contact (noted below). You may also attend a scheduled meeting and sign up before the 3:00 pm start time.

Please note:

- You are welcome to speak for up to two minutes;
- There are five slots for public comment available at each meeting; on a first-come, first-serve basis;
- Turning this form in early is the best way to ensure your place on the meeting agenda.
