Welcome to Summer at Roseway Heights SUN Community School!

Summer camps & classes will be held at both Glenhaven Park & Roseway Heights School. Please take care to note which of our two locations your child's camp is scheduled at.

- Campers should bring a mid-morning and/or mid-afternoon snack daily. Perishable snacks should be packed in insulated containers to ensure freshness.
- Campers should bring plenty of water in break-resistant plastic bottles. To help prevent heat-related illnesses, active campers will be prompted to take frequent water breaks.
- Campers should be dressed in clothing & footwear appropriate for the activity they will be participating in. Please label all of your child's belongings.
- Campers should arrive at camp each day with sunscreen already applied.
- Rain or Shine: In the event of inclement weather, camps will be held at Roseway Heights School.

Camp - Martial Arts

Tae Kwon Do Immersion Camp ages: 8-11

The Tae kwon-do immersion camp is a holistic approach to studying the art, using literature, history and other arts. Aside from training in advanced classes, students will investigate other areas of Martial Arts and Korean History. We will explore the transformations of the Korean Peninsula over the centuries; the impact of other martial arts on Taekwondo, such as Shotokan, Soo Bak Do, Taekyon and Kendo; Korean terminology; art, music and poetry; details about TKD not usually discussed in class. This special class is open to all students
