Chamber Music

Ages 8-18, for Strings, Winds, & Piano

Camp: June 15-19

Play trios, quartets or other works with peers! The Community Music Center Chamber Music Program serves the musical development of young musicians by refining ensemble skills and interpretive abilities in Classical repertoire through instruction with some of the region's top performing-artist instructors.

Players are placed into chamber groups by audition. Ensembles have substantial time each day with a professional coach, and additional rehearsals with an assistant coach. Groups perform their finished work for the public at CMC and may be invited to perform in PP&R's Free for All programs. See "Chamber Music Details" (over) for more information on dates, times, and how to apply.

Professional Coaching

Instructors are renowned artists from CMC's performing faculty with extensive chamber music experience. The program includes a master class by a visiting artist or ensemble.

Free Range Music

Ages 12-18, for any instrument or voice

Camp Options (any 1, 2, or 3 weeks): June 22-26, June 29-July 3, July 6-10

Don't be chicken when it comes to being creative! Spend a week (or two or three) developing repertoire with a small ensemble in the styles you are inspired to learn more about, and gain confidence in being able to make your own music.

Genres that can be explored include Jazz, Pop, Folk, Classical, Blues, Swing, Experimental, Alternative, Latin, Mariachi, Soul, and more. All instruments and vocalists welcome.

We'll match you with other students near your age and experience level, coached by a professional who plays in the group.

Discover everything it takes to successfully collaborate, jam, compose, rehearse, record, and perform with others. Have a memorable experience playing a combination of originals and unique covers, building skills that last a lifetime.

Groups perform their finished work for the public at CMC and may be invited to perform in PP&R's Free for All programs.

FREE RANGE MUSIC DETAILS

PREREQUISITES

At least two years playing your instrument/s, ability to play scales in a few keys, name notes, and play in time.

HOW TO APPLY

To register for one, two or three weeks of camp, fill out our "Free Range Music" Summer intake form in the PP&R catalog, online (portlandoregon.gov/parks/cmc), or at CMC. The intake form tells us about your past experience and current musical goals so we can best place you in a group.
