Karen Loper Tracy	Commissioner Fish	December 31, 2020	Ms. Loper grew up in Portland and spent her career with Portland Parks & Recreation. Starting in college, she held various positions over time including Volunteer Coordinator and Outreach and Communication manager. Her broad exposure to virtually every aspect of the suite of Parks & Recreation services makes her an invaluable addition to this committee. She has an understanding of the roles and responsibilities of employees and volunteers of PPR and how upgrades to the park system help staff respond to citizen recreational needs. She also understands the budgeting protocols and monitoring/managing funding to meet bureau-wide objectives. She retired in 2012 after 4 years as Assistant Director. She worked on many bond and levy programs (before, during and after) ensuring the public was involved and informed throughout the process.

Jonath Colon, Committee Co- Chair	Commissioner Eudaly	December 31, 2020	Mr. Colón is the former Business Development Coordinator for the Hispanic Metropolitan Chamber (Hispanic Chamber), a local chapter of the US Hispanic Chamber. Mr. Colón was with the Hispanic Chamber from 2003 to 2017 and was responsible for providing technical business services to small business owners as part of the Hispanic Chamber’s Business Assistance Program. Mr. Colón is an experienced professional who has demonstrated an outstanding commitment to assisting Latino and other minority businesses. He has provided a variety of services in a bilingual/bicultural manner and has demonstrated exceptional success in reaching out to Oregon’s expanding, yet underserved Latino and minority community. Mr. Colón understands the cultural aspects of the community and has used his network of other professionals to assist businesses. Mr. Colón is a known and trusted member of the Latino community who has a reputation for producing results.
Zari Santner	Commissioner Saltzman	December 31, 2020	Ms. Santner was Director of Portland Parks &amp; Recreation from 2003 until she retired from the City of Portland in 2011. Her nearly 30 years of parks service was exemplified by her commitment to equity and design. Highlights of her career stretch the gamut from projects as such as Powell Butte Nature Park, the Vera Katz East Bank Esplanade, and managing the 1994 Parks Bond to strong policy direction such as making certain parks are considered critical city infrastructure in all city wide budgetary decisions. A landscape architect by training and native of Iran, Santner will bring a unique and comprehensive understanding of Portland Parks &amp; Recreation to the 2014 Parks Bond Oversight Committee.
Janice Mason	Commissioner Fritz	December 31, 2020	Ms. Mason is a marketing and communications leader in the Architecture and Engineering field. She is currently the President of the Philippine Chamber of Commerce and has been involved with the organization for the last four years, assisting the board with rebranding, increasing communications and visibility, and supporting minority-owned small business. She has worked for architecture, engineering, and construction firms for more than 30 years, including time spent as a project manager on public and private landscape architecture projects. Through this experience, she has grown her depth of understanding of the design and construction process. Ms. Mason was recently appointed as co-chair for the International Committee for the Oregon Association of Minority Entrepreneurs.
