

CODE OF CONDUCT

For Patrons and Employees

In order to make Portland Parks & Recreation programs and facilities places where you and your family feel welcome, comfortable, and safe, we ask that you remember to:

- Be a good role model for others, especially children and youth
- Be safe, for the benefit of yourself and everyone else
- Dress appropriately for a public place
- Follow all rules described or posted
- Pick up after yourself (no storage)
- Respect the confidentiality of patrons and fellow employees
- Respect other persons, equipment, supplies, and facilities
- Park in authorized areas

By respecting this Code of Conduct everyone is welcome, comfortable, and safe in all Portland Parks & Recreation facilities and programs.

Portland Parks & Recreation enforces immediate expulsion for violating certain aspects of this Code of Conduct.

REFRAIN FROM THE FOLLOWING

- All forms of harassment
- Bouncing balls in the halls
- Bringing animals (with the exception of service animals) into the building, or leaving them unattended outside
- Bringing bicycles into the building
- Creating a nuisance because of offensive personal hygiene
- Defacing property (structures, land, or equipment)
- Disruptive or disorderly behavior
- Eating or drinking in non-designated areas
- Improper use of restrooms
- Offensive physical contact
- Inflicting harm or hurting self or others
- Leaving young children unsupervised
- Playing audio equipment at a volume that disturbs others
- Riding skateboards, skates or scooters inside the building, or leaving them unattended
- Sleeping or loitering
- Smoking
- Solicitation, petitioning or canvassing other than in the public right-of-way (street sidewalks)
- Spitting
- Using or being under the influence of any intoxicating substance
- Using profanity, teasing or ridiculing others
- Violation of any federal, state or local statute or ordinance

PORTLAND PARKS & RECREATIONSM

Healthy Parks, Healthy Portland

