2. Updates and Community Announcements	3:10-3:20
3. Conversation Cards (Kamesha Robinson, Multnomah County Department of County Human Services)	3:20-3:35
4. Compulsive Hoarding: It's Impact on Individuals, Families and Living Environments (Kevin Ashworth & Allison Bonifay, NW Anxiety Institute) Mr. Ashworth and Ms. Bonifay of NW Anxiety Institute (http://www.nwanxiety.com/) will present on compulsive hoarding. They will focus on understanding hoarding from a psychological perspective and discuss the impact hoarding has on individuals and families. Specifically, they will discuss how hoarding overwhelms many families and significantly impacts their living circumstances, often leaving parts of the home unlivable. Following the presentation, we will have time to discuss treatment options, answer questions and cover issues particular to hoarding and people experiencing homelessness and/or instable housing situations.	3:35-4:30
