Notice to Clients of Uses & Disclosures

Privacy Notice to Clients

This notice tells you about how we use and disclose your private personal information. It tells you about your rights and our responsibilities to protect the privacy of your private personal information. It also tells you how to notify us if you believe that we have violated any of your rights or any of our responsibilities.

We are required by law to maintain the privacy of your private personal information. We must follow the terms of this notice that are currently in effect.

We reserve the right to change this Notice at any time. This Notice is not a legal contract. If this notice is changed, a copy of the revised notice will be available upon request or posted on our website.

You may request a copy of our notice at any time. For more information about our privacy practices, or for additional copies of this notice, please contact us using the information listed at the end of this notice.

We will enter the information you provide our agency into a computerized record-keeping system called ServicePoint. Several local agencies take part in this implementation of ServicePoint™ to better organize and deliver services to homeless or near homeless individuals and families.

~Certain minimum client information is shared throughout the local implementation in order to avoid creating duplicate client records. Authorized HMIS/CMIS persons at participating community agencies will be able to see the following data elements of all client records:

- First Name
 - Last Name
 - Veteran Status
 - Gender
 - Date of Birth
 - Social Security Number (required for specific services)

Our goal is to improve efforts to work together to understand and end homelessness. Information you provide will play an important role, including:

- Helping us prioritize, plan, and provide meaningful services to you and your family;
- Assisting our agency to improve its work with families and individuals that are homeless;
- Allowing local agencies to work better together to end homelessness;
- Providing statistics for local, state, and national policy makers to set effective goals.

How your personal information may be used

- Information you provide and services you receive will be entered into ServicePoint.
- Information you provide will be used for administrative and operational purposes to improve, provide and coordinate services that can be offered you.
- Information you provide will be used for functions related to payment or reimbursement for services.
- Information you provide will be used to monitor program effectiveness.
- Information you provide will be used to prepare aggregate reports and statistical information without personal identifying information.

Privacy Notice to Clients

Know your information rights!

As a Client receiving services from a NWSSC CMIS/HMIS Participating agency, you have the following rights:

1. Determine the level of disclosure of your information; allow or refuse to share your information with NWSSC CMIS/HMIS participating agencies.
2. May terminate the Release of Information at any time, by providing this service provider written notice.
3. Right to request entrance into the database as an anonymous client or a restricted client.
4. Are entitled to a copy of this notice.
5. Reasonable accommodation. The agency you are seeking services from must make reasonable accommodations to ensure that you understand your information rights.
6. Access to your record. You have the right to review your ServicePoint record, obtain a printed copy of your data, and have information that you do not understand explained to you.
7. Correction of your record. You have the right to have your record corrected so that information is up-to-date, accurate, and to ensure fairness in its use. Disagreements over the accuracy of information shall be subject to the agency grievance process and any uncorrected disagreement shall be noted in your ServicePoint record.
8. Refusal. You will not be denied services for which you are otherwise eligible if you refuse to consent to the sharing with other provider agencies of data that has been entered into ServicePoint. If you have safety concerns, please discuss this with a staff member.
9. Grievance: You have the right to be heard if you feel that you have been unjustly served, put at personal risk, or harmed. Employees or agencies that misuse information are subject to reprimands, warnings, and dismissal from the NWSSC CMIS/HMIS. The agency must make their written grievance policy available to you.
10. Data Archival: All personally identifying data will be archived from ServicePoint no later than seven years after being entered or after last being modified.
11. Amendments: The terms of this privacy notice may be amended at any time and all amendments will be effective with respect to previously obtained information.
12. Privacy Policy Questions & Complaints: All questions or complaints regarding this agency's privacy and data security practices may be pursued through the agency grievance process.
