ACTION

Call to Order, Roll Call, Minutes	Approved. Members present included; Christina Dirks, Neisha Saxena, Betty Dominguez, Debra Imse, Patricia Rojas, Laurie Wells, Jerad Goughnour. Staff: Kim McCarty
Public Testimony	none
Fair Housing 50th Anniversary	Discussion of April 11th activities. Kim McCarty said the she had contacted all of the suggested speakers. Anita Hill and Walidah Imarisha were not available. Nikole Hanna-Jones is available. Kim will work with Housing Oregon to plan and raise funds for the event. For the listening session Kim confirmed that the Rose Room at City Hall is reserved in the morning April 11th for the breakfast. The listening session and Fair Housing Month proclamation may happen in the morning or later that afternoon during a City Council time certain. Feedback included the following; a morning was a too constrained time. A lunch or afternoon would be better for a meeting. The listening session should be grounded in stories and real people. Nikole can talk about education and housing segregation. Build a positives landlord/tenant narrative. Note that, February is the Multifamily NW Fair Housing Fair. Contact Geneen Fecuda Equity Officer for David Douglas about Earl Boyle. Harlem Children’s Sone, distributed infrastructure, Targeted Universalism. Potential Invites: Metro, Home Forward, Welcome Home, Sean King – Civil Rights Lewis and Clark Civil Rights Institute, University Partners, BOLI, HUD. Suggested watch, “The House We Live In.” Focus outreach to culturally specific groups. Contact David Austin at the Oregonian.

	Other topics "Race in Portland" CBS special about murder on the MAX. Kim Melton at Multnomah County Chair Office. Ask Ed Washington to make introductions or moderate one of the events.
Review Fair Housing Assessment	Review of draft Fair Housing Analysis of Impediments postponed until February. Concluded the meeting at 4:00 pm.
